National Register Eligibility Information (Intensive Level Survey)

Historic Context(s): Domestic

Historic Time Period(s): M- Early National Period (1789-1830)

Significance Statement: This property is a good example of a domestic property type during the Early National Period (1789-1830). It represents the typical characteristics associated with this property type in Loudoun County, Virginia during this period. The property lacks any associations with significant events or persons in our history, and does not possess sufficient architectural significance. Therefore, this resource does not appear to be eligible for the National Register under Criterion C. Because of the limited focus of this survey, this resource was not evaluated under Criteria A, B, or D.
